

The CMC extends warm congratulations to Dr. David Moffette, who has received the Governor General's Gold Medal Award for his doctoral studies. His supervisor was Professor Anna Pratt, and the other committee members were Professors Ratiba Hadj-Moussa and Willem Maas. The story about the Governor General's Award appears in the YFile, June 16, 2015: yorku.ca/yfile. Dr. Moffette was the 2013 recipient of the Hédi Bouraoui Scholarship in Mediterranean Studies with Emphasis on the Maghreb for his article, "Muslim Ceutías, Migrants and Porteadores: Race, Security and Tolerance at the Spanish-Moroccan Border."
