

Title: "The eye of the universe"

Dimensions: 20" X 20"

Medium: Acrylics on Wood

Description: Time. We measure it by the rise and fall of the sun. What if we could consider that there is no rise and fall? But rather a continuous rhythm, with no beginning or end? A giant heartbeat, a breath, a dance. What if life were just a big river flowing? Would you consider letting go, knowing that the more you resist the flow of the river, the more likely it is that you will drown?

Title: “The offering: Bow down to the glory of the morning.”

Dimensions: 16” X 20”

Medium: Gold leaf and acrylics on Wood

Description: When I was a little girl, in Albania, the morning glory is a flower I remember fondly. The way it opened and closed, it’s smell and the many different colours. One night I had a dream; A fence with the vine of the morning glory appeared, and I was showing it to someone. Something like an offering. An offering from the moon to the ocean. Bound by the golden universe. Look closely.

Title: “Just when you thought it got dark outside”

Dimensions: 20” X 20”

Medium: Copper, LED lights and acrylics on Wood

Description: In total darkness, life simply ceases to exist. Just open your eyes, there is always some light peering in the abyss of darkness.

Title: “Boing....Boing....”

Dimensions: 12” X 24”

Medium: Copper and acrylics on Wood

Description: Sometimes we do not understand why, until the moment has passed.

Title: “Come, walk with me. Let faith be all you need.”

Dimensions: 24” X 36”

Medium: Acrylics on Wood

Dimensions: I like to surprise myself. I can only do that when I surrender to the divine universe. When I stop trying to resist and control the current and just flow. Just be. Faith is all I need. Look closely. What do you see when you let go?
